GABRIEL W. GORENSTEIN, UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

The Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") filed a motion to dismiss the complaint on April 6, 2020. See Docket # 12. The motion to dismiss was served on plaintiff by mail. See Docket # 14. Plaintiff was required to file his papers opposing the FCC's motion by April 20, 2020. See Local Civil Rule 6.1. No such papers were filed, however.

Because of plaintiff's pro se status, the Court will give plaintiff one final opportunity to file papers opposing the FCC's motion. Plaintiff must file his opposition by May 27, 2020. He may file his papers by mailing them to Pro Se Docketing, 500 Pearl Street, New York, NY 10007. Alternatively, plaintiff may email his papers by using the instructions available at https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/forms/instructions-filing-documents-email. The FCC may file a reply within 14 days of plaintiff's filing.

Mr. Rivers is warned that if he fails to comply to this Order by filing a response to the FCC's motion by May 27, 2020, this case may be dismissed as against the FCC for failure to prosecute under Rule 41 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. If plaintiff has a good reason for seeking a further extension, he may send a letter to the Court so requesting and explaining his reasons.

The Clerk of Court is directed to mail a copy of this Order to plaintiff.

SO ORDERED.
